The 76th meeting of the Maudel Shore Family Club was held on June 9, 1973 at Sam + Selma's.

The secretary's report was read and corrected. The treasurer's report was given as $332.15 and also accepted.

Under old business discussion followed on the lottery ticket that we're buying from the Family Club - we decided that the lottery number will be 326473 and the million dollar number will be 51373. Beanie suggested that if we win the whole family will take a trip around the world. Sylvia (Leo's) suggested that if we win up to $2500 prize we should put the money into the club treasury. From $2500 to $50 thousand we should divide it equally to all dues paying members - the millions to be divided equally each year. Beanie suggested we blow it + Sam seconded it - after much discussion we accepted Sylvia's suggestions + if we win that's what we'll do with the money!!

Stuvia is now a permanent resident of Canada + Betty made the motion that he pay 1/2 the regular dues + this be true to anyone that moves out of state. Sylvia (Leo's) seconded it. After much discussion on this motion 1119 took a vote by a member ^{roll call} ~~roll~~ and the motion was passed 12 to 3.

Leo then made the motion that anyone who is paying 1/2 the dues should get only 1/2 the benefits - Bennie seconded this - However, this motion was defeated -

Under good welfare Lucie made the announcement that "Supers" (remember the dog that wasn't pregnant?) - well she delivered 4 gorgeous pups on May 19th -

Sylvia (Leo's) announced that grandson Jeffrey has gained 2 lbs and grown 2 1/2 inches or his check up -

After a short recess to collect dues the meeting was adjourned by Bennie and seconded by Sam - next meeting will be at Taffer's Grove on September 9th -
